Nomination Guidelines

Deadline: Nominations Accepted Until June 19, 2020

The International Bottled Water Association (IBWA) is now accepting nominations for the 2020 Bottled Water Hall of Fame. This prestigious award honors individuals, living or deceased, who have made significant contributions to the bottled water industry and their communities.

The Bottled Water Hall of Fame award offers the bottled water industry a unique opportunity to honor its outstanding leaders. Take advantage of this forum to nominate a special individual for consideration by current Hall of Fame members. The deadline for nominations is June 19, 2020.

During the General Session of the 2020 IBWA Annual Business Conference and Trade Show at the Hyatt Regency in Orlando, November 9-12, 2020, IBWA will announce this year's Hall of Fame inductee(s).

General Rules

- The nominee must be a current or retired Bottler, Distributor, or Supplier member of IBWA.
- Each nominee must have a minimum of two (2) letters of recommendation (written in English) from IBWA members.
- The letters of recommendation must include the following information:
 - Nominee's name, address, and company affiliation.
 - Nominee's professional background.
 - Nominee's specific contributions to the bottled water industry.
 - Nominee's activities in local, state, and national associations within the bottled water industry.
 - Nominee's activities in social, charitable, or civic organizations.

Letters of Recommendation

Submit letters of recommendation two ways:

- Via email to Chris Torres: ctorres@bottledwater.org
- Via mail to IBWA headquarters:

Notification

All Bottled Water Hall of Fame inductees will be notified no later than the week of September 7, 2020. When notified, each inductee will be asked to provide IBWA with the following:

- Photos of the inductee.
- Additional narrative detail, if necessary, explaining why he/she is being inducted into the Bottled Water Hall of Fame.
- The name of his or her spouse, significant other, or family members who will accompany the inductee to the convention.
